

Rapidshare files

Rapidshare hasn't lost its touch with the masses as their favored file hosting solution on the internet but most of the people are peeved over the fact that they have significantly minimized their download-quota. They are chiefly indignant over two points. Firstly, they feel that free Rapidshare download quota should not have been reduced for premium users. Secondly, they believe that free users should not have faced the hard-hitting speed decrease.

Users worldwide can find files hosted on Rapidshare in myriad ways. One of the techniques is to include the various parameters of Google search which will only look for Rapidshare files for the entire file and its subcategories being asked by a user.

There are many other brilliant options just as well. Another one deals in Rapidshare search engine. These engines have their own information base of files that is hosted at the file hoster. The databases are attached to the latest upgrade and links to Rapidshare files directly to feasibly reach out for files.

Sites which maintain their own databases are considered to be the most effective. Apart from this, there are other passable sites which offer Rapidshare file searches.

Google custom search engine only amalgamates the concept of Google search directives with a personalized search engine that generates moolah for the creator of the search engine. A search button can help with the identification. A search button presenting "Google search" is far from being a website worth its personal database. It is just a custom google search instrument.

As mentioned earlier, many Rapidshare files utilize their personal database. Few instances of such files are:

RS find

RS Rapidshare

Rapidshare Data

Rapid TVPHP

File tubes

Apart from this and few other names, most of the Rapidshare search engines are no different than Google search engines.

No one can be foolish enough to give Rapidshare premium accounts for free Rapidshare downloads. After all, it is the very best file sharing program doing the market rounds. For this purpose, we need software that makes us feel like Rapidshare members. Let's find out a few free Rapidshare download tools.

Rapidshare Link Grabber

Rapidshare golden pack

Rapidshare Harvest

Many people provide with their own alternatives to Rapidshare. They promote their own file sharing space with unlimited download possibility and 150 MB space. They still fall miserably short. We hope that Rapidshare just finds some way to bring back the irritated customers back to their folds.
