

Match Ice Tea Spoon

This Match no-nonsense flatware celebrates classic Oneida design elements. Dramatic flutes and a scalloped tip decorate Dublin's fan-shaped handle. A graceful addition is to your tabletop. This is slightly smaller than a regular teaspoon. It is not available in most modern services. This Match spoon is usually identical to a youth spoon. As the name suggests it is for the before dinner tea or coffee. China manufactures used to manufacture tea and coffee and demitasse sized cups.

This Match spoon is about the same size and shape as a teaspoon. The bowl may be slightly smaller and more ornate than a regular teaspoon. If the bowl does not differ from a teaspoon in any way other than that it has cut out serration's consider the possibility that this is a modified item. Normally, fruit spoons have a sharp pointed tip or a slightly serrated tip.

This Match spoon for ice cream is often modified from teaspoons. Genuine ice cream spoons are most often found in services that were introduced about the turn of the century. There was no automated refrigeration then. Ice cream was a rare treat that deserved a special spoon. Today many collectors want to acquire ice cream spoons.

The Match Place spoon, Oval soup and Dessert spoon usually refer to the same item in modern flatware services. In older services, these terms can actually refer to slightly different sizes of very similar items. All of these are basically a larger version of the teaspoon. In older services, measure this piece carefully to be sure that you are ordering the correct size of spoon. Usually only found in 19 Century Patterns. This is a very small spoon used for taking salt from a salt dish to the food. You will not usually find these in silver plate or Stainless. Silverplate can not survive the exposure to salt.
