

Gift Her A Surprise

Well experience has taught me that I'm blessed with the ability to come up with rather quirky gift ideas! Last time when my cousin Polly celebrated her birthday I gave her a 3 weeks package to join a health centre. She was moved to tears, the reason I am yet to fathom out, but she did joined the health centre and after going through the grind looks a 'couple of 100' pounds lighter.

This Christmas I've tried to come up with few novel gift ideas for the fairer sex. Surprise them this season, as more often than not you are being ruled by one. Just make sure that the surprise is a pleasant one.

Cosmetics:

Sorry for being clichéd but accept it guys that women can't even breathe without their revered make-up kits. And they said it's oxygen that keeps us going! Can be gifted to anyone, mom, sis, 'her', cousin, aunt...the list can go on.

A Pet To Cuddle:

Gift a faithful companion to her that will bemuse her when you are not around, no I am not comparing you with her pup, and will be a symbol of your fond remembrance when you are away on your business trip. Just don't freak out when you find your Armani jacket 'decorated' by fur when you are about to leave for office!

Lingerie:

Go for any of the top brands and just present it to her. She possibly couldn't have asked for more and at the end of the day the 'pleasure' will be all yours.

Personal Massage:

This will take a little time for preparation. Undergo a short term course in under any oriental masseur and surprise her on the Christmas Eve. Give her the most sensual experience of her life and your gratification will be just incidental!!!

Spa Lights:

If you are too lazy to undergo the rigours of the above mentioned 'gift' just present these little battery operated waterproof lights. Their rubber suckers underneath enable you to stick them inside the bathtub or for that matter any smooth bathroom surface enabling you to 'light up' the whole bathing experience.

Give her a ROSE, but this one is different:

This one is grandest of them all and exclusively for someone very very special like your mom or 'beloved'. Gift a packet of unique unnamed rose seeds, which the recipient can grow with the help of the included handy guide to growing roses. The best part being, you can ask them to name it on themselves. It will surely smell sweeter than any other rose for you. It's available with select vendors only!

Do your best to tell that special person in your life that how much she means for you, it doesn't necessarily have to be your lady love, can be your mom or your childhood friend. Christmas is a time of year when broken bridges can be rebuilt and existing relationships can be strengthened.
