

3 Ways to Personalize Your Bridesmaids Gifts

Most brides find it difficult to choose unique bridesmaids gifts. Although each friend is equally as important as the other is, your bridesmaids gifts do not have to be the same. Special friends are unique in their own way. No two friends are ever just alike. With this said, you should choose gifts that make each bridesmaid feel special. Personalizing your bridesmaids gifts is a distinctive way of letting your friends know how special they really are to you. It may take a little creativity to find bridesmaids gifts that are equal in value, but unique to each bridesmaid. Here are 3 creative ways to personalize your bridesmaids gifts.

Swarovski Crystal Bridal Jewelry is an elegant approach to gift giving. Giving bridal jewelry as a bridesmaids gift is a wonderful way for a bride to show her appreciation. There are multiple approaches to personalizing Swarovski bridal jewelry. Choosing a unique bridal jewelry set for each bridesmaid is one approach. Each set should coordinate with each bridesmaid's style and personality, not to mention her dress. Another alternative to personalizing Swarovski crystal bridal jewelry is to gift-wrap each gift in a unique gift box or a jewelry box. Your bridesmaids will feel appreciated and special.

Tote Bags are always a favorable choice among women. You can give each bridesmaid a tote bag, but personalize each by selecting a different color for every bridesmaid. Getting the tote bags monogrammed will make the bridesmaids gifts even more personal. Giving a tote bag as a gift can serve many purposes. Your bridesmaids can use the tote bag on your wedding day to house their personal items during and after the ceremony. You might consider filling the tote bag with toiletries specific to each bridesmaid. Even though each bridesmaid will receive a tote bag, personalizing the tote bag will make her feel more special.

Handbags are an important accessory for any glamour girl. Selecting a handbag that matches your bridesmaids dresses is a practical bridesmaids gift. You can personalize each bridesmaids gift by including a unique item in each handbag. The item should relate to each bridesmaids personality. If you have an emotional friend, you might consider including a small pack of Kleenex in her handbag (she is sure to cry at some point during the ceremony). A tube of lipstick would be perfect to include in the Diva's handbag (every girl has a Diva for a friend). Choosing a small item that reflects each bridesmaid's personality is a sure way to make your friends feel special.

There are several ways to personalize your bridesmaids gifts. Reflecting on your bridesmaids' personality and style can help you personalize their gifts. All it takes is a little thought and creativity.
