

Philippine flower shop offers up roses for summer

For summer 2007, Express Regalo, the popular online Philippine flower shop owned and operated by the trusted LBC Group of Companies, known as Hari ng Padala, or King of Deliveries, offers up a hot combination of rose bouquets not previously offered by any other flower shop in the Philippines.

Filipinos abroad and in the Philippines can now visit the website of this Philippine flower shop at www.expressregalo.com to view the many different Philippine flower bouquets. More than a dozen different bouquets, lovingly arranged by Express Regalo, are now available for purchase and delivery anywhere in the Philippines.

With the summer heat making it a hassle to go out and purchase flowers directly from brick-and-mortar Philippine flower shops, it simply makes more sense to go on the Internet and visit an online Philippine flower shop to buy flowers to send to family and friends in the Philippines. The security, provided by VeriSign, and wide selection of Philippine flowers on the website of Express Regalo makes it an ideal place to visit to buy and send Philippine flowers.

The sizzling selection of rose bouquets on this Philippine flower shop's website all complement the joy and life that summer has since come to represent. Special summer bouquets like Spicy Chic, for instance, are perfect for sending to a loved one or friend to celebrate the happiness that comes with a summer romance, thanks to its deliriously hot combination of orange and red roses. This Philippine flower shop can deliver a bouquet (or two!) of Spicy Chic anywhere in the Philippines in a matter of hours.

Another exciting summer bouquet one can send to loved ones from this Philippine flower shop is Tropical Punch. This delightful Philippine flower bouquet features fresh roses in summery shades of orange and yellow.

Some of this Philippine flower shop's other summer bouquets include Classic Act, delightful in red and white; Dawn, refreshing in white and yellow; Dusk, sophisticated yellow and red; and Pastel Perfect, simply adorable in white and pink; and Sweet Orange, a citrusy combination of orange and white.

If you are not the type for color combinations, this Philippine flower shop also offers up solid Philippine rose bouquets in shades of lavender, white, red, orange, pink, and yellow.

Handpicked for freshness, each bouquet from this Philippine flower shop is guaranteed to arrive at your loved one's doorstep in first-class condition.

About the Author

Visit Philippine flower shop to see images and begin celebrating the heat of summer today.

Source: <http://www.articletrader.com>