

Primer Explodes In Energy Drink Market

Then two brothers turn the whole energy drink market on its head by making "Primer". Now the definition is:

n. a refreshing breath spray with a "kick in the ass" amount of caffeine formulated for your enjoyment.

primer® (a noun)

n. a cap or cylinder containing a compound that responds to friction or an electrical impulse and ignites the charge in a cartridge or explosive.

n. a small pump for pumping fuel to prime an internal combustion engine, especially in an aircraft.

n. a refreshing breath spray with a "kick in the ass" amount of caffeine formulated for your enjoyment

Who are these brothers? Most call them the "DelHagen Brothers" We just call them crazy like foxes. At Primer ® they welcome Wholesale distributors as you are critical trading partner for convenience retailers. Their goal is to form a long term profitable relationship with you.
