

Mass production of wine glass Pierre Goblet

Karim Rashid's designs are as singular, colorful and unmistakable as the man himself, incorporating vibrant colors and organic shapes for interiors that always delight and surprised. He designs privately as well as for mass production. The Pierre Goblet glass by renowned designer Karim Rashid is characterized by a clear glass outer shell and a graceful, luminous inner form of frosted glass.

A good wine glass is plain, colorless, and tulip-shaped, with a very thin lip and a stem with a sturdy base. Happy people Pierre Goblet designed by Karim Rashid is an extensive series of mouth-blown crystal glassware consisting of diverse forms and volumes. Each PIERRE goblet is reversible, giving it dual functionality. i.e.: Jose is a margarita glass that quickly becomes a shot glass when overturned. This is a very cheapest and more number of peoples is accepted and wants this item of designs.

The Happy People Pierre Goblet glass is named after a different country people. The Pierre glass ergonomic design sits comfortably in your hand, while the splash of orange in the groove adds just enough color to give this piece a hip touch. The Pierre glasses of diverse forms and volumes that are both sculptural and functional designed by Karim Rashid. The glass is more useful for wine or beer users. The Pierre glass is very popular in this New York city. The glass is very beautiful and more useful to wine or beer users.

In the "Happy People" collection each glass is named after a different country or people, on the basis of the element's shape or the traditions of that nation. All the goblets are crystal and reversible, that is, you can use them for drinking from either end. When a relaxing weekend, the beer or wine users is used for Pierre glass is very cheapest. The Pierre glass is beautifully and simple in design. Please purchase online www.katiewongnyc.com in New York.

About the Author

Representing the Happy People Pierre Goblet glass in the website www.katiewongnyc.com

Source: <http://www.articletrader.com>