

12 REASONS TO BECOME A NETWEB MARKETER

Do you want to succeed in the game of life? Do you want to see your friends and family succeed? This is what true Netweb Marketers want to see, so the natural thing to do is to encourage them to become an affiliate or a Netweb Marketer, to get on the banwaggon and join somebody's team. This is what you will want to do, because you are motivated, excited and you feel that if everybody unites, great things can be accomplished, but what you will soon realize is that they ignore and turn up their noses. My advise is: do not get discouraged. Use the rejections to your benefit. Keep talking to more and more peolpe and you will find people who are like minded. People who want to make a difference and are not too lazy or afraid to plunge into the water. You set the pace. Be consistent, stay focussed, persist and persevere.

Be not surprized if later on some of those same people who through rejection blocks at you, now want to listen to you and thank you for sharing. When your friends and family who in the beginning stage of your rise to to a higher level see you starting to progress, that is the time that they will take you seriously. Then you can explain to them that your success comes as a result of you making a decision, being teachable, taking tiny steps and implementing strategies. This will be your other opportunity to teach them to fish. Do not just hand out the freebies, let them work for it-you did, without their help. You should not treat them as they treated you, however. Help them, but let them work for it.

Set selfishness aside and realize that there is no reason to be hesitant or refuse helping someone because you fear that they will get ahead or have more than you. The good that you do will return to you. Do unto others as you would like them to do to you, because in the same measure you give you will receive. Know that there is more than enough to go around for everyone. We live in an abundant world, where there is no limit. One sure way to get your share is to help others get theirs and celebrate with them if they happen to get theirs before you. Your time will come, if you have the desire and take actions. The principle of reciprocity also known as giving and receiving is implied here.

When you become an Affilliate or a Net Web Mrketer, you become part of a team. The greatest man who ever walked the earth had a team. He chosed wisely and everyone brought unique skills, abilities and talents to His team. The twelve disciples were his affilliates. As a result He worked many miracles, so can we.

One night as I was praying and asking God to let me use the faith that He has given me to the max. I had a vision which at that time I interpreted as the Lord showing me how deep and wide my faith can get. The dream was about a huge tree with branches spreading as far as my eyes could see and going so deep that I could not see where the roots ended. The Holy Spirit said to me, "that was a mustard and that is the reason I thought it had to do with faith, but as I write this article that vision has come so very clear to me again; now with an another intrepretation. This tree now represent people working together in teams to create huge success with ease. Hence the saying, "Many hands make work light."

The reson for this is because every member of a team comes with unique capabilities to make that team stronger and more productive.
