

DVD shows criminals how to get away with illegal activity and avoid prison.

Some cameramen participated in a robbery, a car jacking, a home invasion and got arrested. I admit nothing, I hung out with Jiggaboo Jones with a digital camera during a police chase, robbery, burglary and several other felony crimes. On the video Jiggaboo Jones told people how to get away with crime. You can get a copy my footage. Get it before it gets banned.

I had to pull a shotgun on my best friend during the making of this movie. We was drinking, having fun, and I was talking to the camera when my best friend walked in talking some bullshit. It's now one of the most talked about bootleg clips on the internet. The footage was so crazy, out for control and wild they threw it in the movie.

Local newspapers reported a rise in crime during the production of this movie. Its documented by the Los Angeles Police Department, local Authorities and the media. Jiggaboo Jones had a one man impact lowering the arrest rate while crime soared and left everyday citizens scared, angry and confused. Even if you are a law-abiding citizen you need to see this video to educate yourself enough so you don't become a statistic. Buy the today DVD and protect yourself tomorrow.

Key character, Jiggaboo Jones' Uncle Mac Duff died during production of the Documentary. Close friends state, Jiggaboo Jones took a sinister turn without the logical and humanitarian side of Mac Duff to keep him in check. Jiggaboo Jones attacked an unarmed man with a briefcase out of anger of his passing. This proved to be a dark turning point that started a hail of legal problems, felony arrests and long drawn out court cases. Find out about the events where Jiggaboo Jones forced his uncle to run for his freedom during a savage shooting in Chicago, IL.

They barged in to my house, cameras, lights and that nigga Jiggaboo Jones. We grew up together but I still was pissed that they came in like that. I told them what they wanted to know about that scandalous cheating ass nigga. I was cool and looking back maybe I told too much about me in the process. I can hold my own in the East Side 408, so I keeps it real....

Let's face it - Prison is not fun. Yet, most people within the criminal underworld nowadays waste tremendous amounts of their lifetime going back and forth to jail.

Prison sentences are getting longer for lesser crimes, why lose time on the street with faulty game?

Despite the fact that getting time in the yard is an old, obsolete technique to become an OG (Original Gangster) that no longer makes sense in today's Information Age economy and politically pacified law enforcement officials.

In so many areas of criminal activity and life in general, new and efficient methods have been accepted and embraced, but for some reason that homies, Gees, Players, Pimps and Dope Dealers and Shot Callers of most gangs today continue to teach, endorse, and even force the practice of "Straight Jackin' and Armed Robbery" on their soldiers, despite the fact that Strong Arm Crime and larceny no longer produces the healthy rolls of cash it did ten or twenty years ago, and in many cases produces no results at all, other than lost homeboys, felony cases, parole violations and even life sentences in Prison.

STOP wasting your time and losing valuable time on the street, stick around to raise your bad ass kids, shoot dice and smoke dope with your homies. Gain a steady income with streamlined criminal activity. START using the Information Age, pacified justice system and the blatant stupidity of average people to your advantage. Criminal techniques I reveal in my newsletter secrets that will double or even triple your time between arrests, forever ending back to back convictions & prison sentences!
