

Hand-Crafted Pens For Every Occasion

What can be a nicer gift for the college graduate than one of the many different types of hand-crafted pens made by Lanier Pens? Giving a college graduate a Lanier Pen has a special significance; it says so many things without you having to say a word. It says you acknowledge and appreciate the many years of hard work of the past and it a perfect symbol of an abundance of good wishes for the future.

Lanier Pens has been making top quality hand-crafted pens since 2005. There are many different types of hand-crafted pens made by Lanier. All of the Lanier pens are made of an assortment of exotic woods and are hand-crafted to perfection. They come with a variety of plating options including 24kt gold. The nibs are German made smooth flowing iridium plated. The wooden pens can be easily engraved with initials, further adding to their gift value.

Hand-Crafted Fountain Pens

The hand-crafted pens from Lanier pens include exquisite fountain pens. These are not like old fashioned fountain pens that dripped ink. The hand-crafted pens made by Lanier have ink cartridges in them. These fountain pens write like an old fashioned fountain pen, but without the messy ink wells and ink blots. If you want smooth, fine script like writing, you can choose a fountain pen. Lanier makes dozens of hand-crafted pens that have fountain head tips. Some of the tips are metal plated and some are made of gold. There is also a wide selection of woods and styles for these hand-crafted pens.

Hand-Crafted Rollerball Pens

Another option with Lanier hand-crafted pens is the rollerball pen. This is not a ball point pen, but a pen that has a very smooth ball at the tip made out of ceramic. This enables the ink to flow smoothly onto the paper. Rollerball pens are all the rage and many people are switching from ball point pens to this new style pen. They are almost a cross between the fine writing of a fountain pen and the more practical sturdy writing of a ball point pen.

Hand-Crafted Ball Point Pens

Of course, if you are committed to using a ball point pen, Lanier makes dozens of different hand-crafted pens designed to fit both your taste and budget. There are also pencils available as well as gift sets with a combination of pens and pencils. These Lanier pens and pencils and even the wooden case that they are encased in can be personalized by engraving the recipients name on them.

A Hand-Crafted Pen Is Forever

Anyone who has to give a college graduation gift, a wedding gift or even a corporate gift should consider purchasing one of the hand-crafted pens made by Lanier Pens. Once a person gets such a gift, they will never again want to write with an ordinary pen. These hand-crafted pens are made to last a lifetime and each come with refillable ink cartridges.

Whether you choose a fountain pen, rollerball pen, or simple ball point pen, the hand-crafted exotic wood pens made by Lanier Pens make an excellent and fine gift for just about anyone. While you are perusing the website, you may want to even pick up a special pen for yourself. Not only are Lanier pens among the finest writing instruments in the world, but they are also surprisingly affordable. You will pay a fraction of what you might expect to pay for precision hand-crafted pens of this quality when you purchase one of the many different Lanier pens that are on the market today. Lanier pens are made to last a lifetime. If you want the very best when it comes to high quality hand-crafted pens, choose one of the many different style offered by Lanier Pens.
